Make your reader truly your own by adding your syllabus, course notes, exercises, or even copyrighted material from other publishers (we'll handle the permissions!). Up to 20% of your custom book can be material from outside the database. If you'd like to add outside material, just indicate what you'd like to add below, and a Database Project Specialist will contact you with further details.

I'd like to add my own material to my custom reader. I'd like to add third party material to my custom reader.
